

The stallion list of the Mother organization KNN

The KNN stallion list is kept by the Mother organization "Knabstrupperforeningen for Danmark".

According to the general set of rules for stud-book keeping (Videnscentret Hest), the Mother organization will publish every year before the 15th of February which stallions are registered and approved for the list of the coming season.

If the stallion is not registered on the stallion list in the year of the covering, the offspring can not be registered in the KNN.

Registration of stallions.

-How is a stallion entered on the stallion list of the season?

The owner enters the stallion in writing for the season. Entry forms are available from the organization or downloaded from www.knab.dk.

-When must the registration be effected for the season?

Registration for the season of a stallion must be effected by the 15th of January.

The owner will expect an extra fee if the stallion is entered later than the 15th of January.

Stallions which are given a breeding licence for the season after the 15th of January, will automatically be entered on the stallion list of the season.

Mare owners can apply for using a KNN approved stallion which is not on the stallion list of the season. The stallion is included on the list for that specific covering. The owner of the mare will expect a fee for the administration and registration.

-Economy of registration- The Mother organization KNN stallion list.

The Mother organization collects an administration fee for informing the stud-book keeping organization.

Stallion owners who are active members of a Daughter organization are charged ½ fee only.

The stud-book keeping organization will charge an administration fee for the season according to the current price list.

-Publication of the stallion list of the Mother organization.

Stallions only registered on the stallion list of the Mother organization, will be published in "Knabstrupper Nyt" in list form as follows: Name of stallion, Reg. no. Country Code.

The stallion list of the season will be published in the March Vol. with a deadline of Feb. 1st. It will include stallions approved for breeding for the season and stallions with a lifelong licence, whose owners have registered the stallion in writing on Feb. 15th at the latest.

Additions to the stallion list of the season will be published in the June Vol. with a deadline of May 1st. It will include knabstrupper stallions approved for breeding after the 15th of Jan. as well as stallions whose owners have contacted the administrator of the stallion list regarding the list of the season.
